INTRODUCTORY NOTE

The Guide to Aboriginal Organizations and Services in British Columbia is a provincial resource listing of community-based services and organizations. The Guide is also a means by which other community service organizations, government ministries and agencies, and the general public may become knowledgeable about specific Aboriginal services and organizations. Publication of this Guide is coordinated by the Intergovernmental and Community Relations Branch in support of Aboriginal people and their communities. This publication is based on data available at the time of printing.

The Guide is not meant to be a comprehensive listing of all Aboriginal organizations in B.C., nor is it intended to offer links to all services that may be of interest to Aboriginal people. For the most part, the organizations listed in the Guide are Aboriginal-controlled and generally operate on a not-for-profit basis.

An electronic version of this publication is available on the Ministry of Aboriginal Relations and Reconciliation website at: http://www.prov.gov.bc.ca/arr/.

To request that an organization be added to the Guide, to update contact information or give feedback, please send details to:
